

THE BACK BAY SUN

SHEDDING NEW LIGHT ON AN OLD NEIGHBORHOOD

OUT AND ABOUT

By Roger Farrington

The U.S. Fund for UNICEF presented the 2006 Children's Champion Award to H.R.H. The Princess of Hanover, Princess Caroline of Monaco, on Saturday, May 20, 2006 at the Museum of Fine Arts. More than 350 black-tied guests gathered in the museum's rotunda for the award presentation ceremony and to mingle with H.R.H. A more intimate dinner with the princess was held later in the Koch Gallery, raising more than $250,000 to benefit UNICEF's programs for the advancement of children worldwide.

Larry and Jan Dorman, Beacon Street, pose with H.R.H. The Princess of Hanover, (center).

Natalie Williams and Ann Ogilvie, Commonwealth Avenue.

Caterina Bandini, Commonwealth Avenue, and Jonathan Goldstein, Exeter Street.

Peter and Pam Voss, South Charles Street, and H.R.H. The Princess of Hanover, center.

Tina DeNormandie and Stephanie Warburg, Beacon Street.

The Reverend Maribeth Conroy of Trinity Church and John Cleft.

Dr. Alan Ezekowitz and his wife Deborah Lundin, Beacon Street.